The Official Plans and Project Manual can only be obtained by visiting the ECUA website, www.ecua.fl.gov, selecting the “Doing Business with ECUA” header, followed by selecting “Bid Opportunities” under the drop down menu, at which time a complete list of advertised ECUA projects can be seen. Click the link to the project’s Plans and Project Manual, register and/or log into ECUA’s file sharing service and view or download the Plans and Project Manual in pdf file format as desired. The file sharing service will also alert registrants about updates and/or addenda. ECUA advises potential bidders, suppliers and sub-contractors to only rely on information personally obtained from ECUA’s file sharing service and not from third parties.

All questions about the meaning or intent of the bidding documents are to be submitted to Engineer (Andrew Gibbs, P.E., Mott-MacDonald) in writing via email at agibbs@mottmac.com up to seven (7) days prior to the bid opening. Interpretations or clarification considered necessary by the Engineer in response to such questions will be issued by addenda to the ECUA website to all parties registered to receive documents about this bid via the website. Questions received less than seven (7) calendar days prior to the date for the opening of bids will not be answered. Only questions answered by addenda will be binding. Oral and other interpretations or clarifications will be without legal effect.

The Emerald Coast Utilities Authority reserves the right to waive informalities in any bid; reject any or all proposals, in whole or in part; rebid a project, in whole or in part; and to accept a proposal that in its judgment is the lowest and best bid of a responsible bidder. In accepting a bid, ECUA may award a contract based only on the base bid, the base bid plus all alternates, or the base bid plus any alternates that ECUA selects – with all decisions being made based upon what ECUA believes to be the best interests of its ratepayers, in the reasonable exercise of its discretion. ECUA further reserves the right to increase or decrease quantities as may be required to meet the needs of ECUA at the unit price which was bid. The ECUA does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, religion, age, marital status, and disability/handicapped status, veteran status, or any other legally protected status in employment or provision of service.
